

13th Annual Conference - National Association of Local Boards of Health
August 10 - 13, 2005
Hilton Suites Downtown, Nashville, Tennessee

Mark your calendars for NALBOH's 13th Annual Conference. The theme of the conference is Local Boards of Health: Responding to Our Community's Needs. The goal of NALBOH's Annual Conference is to provide current public health information and training to local board of health members from across the United States.

NALBOH's Call for Presentations is available online at www.nalboh.org. We invite you to submit an abstract for consideration. NALBOH encourages submissions that incorporate or expand upon the conference theme.

To learn more about the conference, please visit the NALBOH website at www.nalboh.org or contact Jennifer O'Brien at 419-353-7714 or jennifer@nalboh.org. NALBOH's Program Committee will review all applications and make its selections based on the criteria above. Applicants will be notified of the status of their submission by March 4, 2005.

Please accept our apologies for any duplication or cross-posting.
